Currency Press Pty Ltd, Australia, 1998. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 310 x 225 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Provides an excellent collection of concert pieces for the professional, student or amateur violinist. A much needed book, the colourful works published here represent a wide range of styles from a broad cross-section of Australian composers. The editor has selected music which can be played by the intermediate and advanced violin student. At the same time the professional or accomplished musician will find that this book is a valuable resource of Australian compositions suitable for any recital. For the teacher, this collection provides a useful and enjoyable means to introduce various modern violin techniques which may not have been encountered elsewhere in the teaching repertoire. Careful editing and detailed performance notes will facilitate preparation.
