Excerpt: . . . up his ears when Methodists mention Hank He is held in honor for his many social qualities, wise energy and ability. He is tall, spare, erect and composed. His sermons are vertebrated. There is bone in them, but not wholly skeleton. There is grace and finish. The delivery is grave, measured and magnetic. We have had the favor of a charming narrative from him covering an interesting period of his life, which we use as superior to any notes of our own: I am the eldest son of Rev. Jehu Hank of the Baltimore Conference. I was born in Louisa county, Va. , on the 13th of October, 1835, while my father, then a member of the Virginia Conference, was preacher in charge of that circuit. In 1837, my father was appointed to. Caswell circuit, North Carolina, and consequently fell into the North Carolina Conference,...
